Session Report: 26/7/2019

"Event Management and 'The Big Short' "

Speaker: Mayur Raut, BE 4.

The session was attended by 20 students.

The last session covered a few topics related to business tactics & stock market and a documentary discussion on the film 'The Big Short'.

•   Event Management –

- Basic Knowledge and prerequisites to manage an event.

- The major milestones in the process of event management. Discussion on strategic marketing and communication should be affirmed, understanding the objectives of event and proper scheduling.

- Importance of building up a near perfect and responsible team, keeping in mind the objectives and maintaining a steady pace of work.

- The division of resources into different teams for efficient work and coordination between those teams.

• Discussion on documentary films like 'The Big Short'

- Introduction to Dr. Michael Burry.

- Terms and definitions of subprime mortgages, CDOs, CDSs, etc.

- Reason for housing market crash in US.

• Guest appearance by Arpit Bhasin, BE.

- Planning to study for coming years for university level exam and competitive exams like GATE, etc.

- Introduction to important domains in market right now.

- Resources for preparation of study of coding languages like Java, C++, etc.

❖

• Discussion on other topics like self-development and management finesse.

Above: Mayur Raut, explaining 'Event Management', Left: Arpit Bhasin, explaining coding platforms

❖